C.A. NO.: 1:21-cv-461

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

TO: The Chief Judge and Judges of the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island

The Defendant, Target Corporation (“Defendant”), hereby files this Notice of Removal of the above-captioned matter from the Providence County Superior Court, State of Rhode Island, to the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332, 1441 and 1446 of the United States Code. In support of its Notice of Removal, the Defendant states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. The Defendant removes this case on the basis of diversity jurisdiction, on the grounds that there is diversity of citizenship among the parties and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1) (“[t]he district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions where the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and is between citizens of different states.”).

BACKGROUND

2. The Plaintiff, Francis Daddona (“Plaintiff”), filed a Complaint in the Providence Superior Court on November 4, 2021, naming Target Corporation as the only Defendant. See Complaint (attached as Exhibit A).

3. The Plaintiff alleges that, on February 6, 2019, he suffered a fall at the Defendant’s retail store located at 371 Putnam Pike, Suite A-250 in Smithfield, Rhode Island, as a result of the negligence of the Defendant. He alleges that he sustained personal injuries, emotional harm, which incapacitated him, pain and suffering, expenses for medical and hospital care and attention, lost wages, salaries and/or earnings, loss in earning capacity, scarring and loss of use. See Exhibit A.

TIMELINESS OF REMOVAL

4. The Defendant was served with the Summons and Complaint on November 4, 2021. This Notice of Removal is timely because it is filed within thirty (30) days of the Defendant’s receipt of the Summons and Complaint in this matter. 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b)(2)(B) and (C); Murphy Bros.v. Michetti Pipe Stringing, Inc., 526 U.S. 344 (1999).

DIVERSITY OF CITIZENSHIP

5. Complete diversity of citizenship exists because the Plaintiff and the Defendant are citizens of different states. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a).

6. Although the Complaint is silent on the Plaintiff’s residence, the Defendant is in possession of medical records produced by the Plaintiff, which evidence that he is a resident of Barrington, Rhode Island. Thus, for purposes of determining whether diversity jurisdiction exists, the Plaintiff is a citizen of Rhode Island.

7. The Defendant is a corporation organized under the laws of Minnesota with its principal place of business also located in Minnesota. Thus, for purposes of determining whether diversity jurisdiction exists, the Defendant is a citizen of Minnesota.

AMOUNT IN CONTROVERSY

8. Based on the Plaintiff's allegations, the amount in controversy in this case exceeds $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

9. The Plaintiff claims that he sustained personal injuries, emotional harm, which incapacitated him, pain and suffering, expenses for medical and hospital care and attention, lost wages, salaries and/or earnings, loss in earning capacity, scarring and loss of use. Exhibit A at ¶ 6.

10. Specifically, through his counsel, the Plaintiff has stated that he suffered injuries to his left knee that required a total knee replacement surgery and that he has incurred over $70,000 in medical expenses and $70,000 in lost wages due to his injuries.

11. Where the Plaintiff has not pled a specific amount of damages, the amount in controversy requirement is satisfied when the Defendant has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000 based on the seriousness of the Plaintiff's claimed injuries and damages. 28 U.S.C. § 1446(c)(2)(B). The Court is not bound by the Plaintiff's representations regarding her claim and may use its own judicial experience and common sense in making this determination and can make reasonable deductions and inferences from the pleadings to determine whether removal is proper. Gabrielle v. Allegro Resorts Hotels, 201 F. Supp. 62, 65-66 (D.R.I. 2002) (holding amount in controversy was satisfied based on the complaint's description of the plaintiff's injuries and medical treatment, despite the lack of any specific information about the cost of such treatment).

12. The types of damages considered as part of the amount in controversy are those permitted by the state-law cause of action alleged in the Plaintiff's Complaint. Abdel-Aleem v. OPK Biotech LLC, 665 F.3d 38, 42 (1st Cir. 2012); Gabrielle, 210 F. Supp. 2d at 65 (holding amount in controversy depends on amount that plaintiff may recover). Here, the Plaintiff's Complaint does not contain an ad damnum or claim for any monetary amount. However, he alleges that he sustained personal injuries, emotional harm, which incapacitated him, pain and suffering, expenses for medical and hospital care and attention, lost wages, salaries and/or earnings, loss in earning capacity, scarring and loss of use. Exhibit A at ¶6. Additionally, outside of the Complaint, the Plaintiff, through counsel, has represented that he incurred over $70,000 in medical expenses and over $70,000 in lost wages as a result of his claimed injuries. Therefore, the amount in controversy clearly exceeds $75,000.00.
